

Understanding the cost and value of genomics to the health system

Clinical governance for genomics

Ensuring Victorian healthcare professionals have access to high-quality genomics education

Road-testing models of care in different specialties and building networks of genomics expertise

Road-testing ways to access genetic counselling expertise and enabling a community of practice

Understanding who is (and isn't) accessing genetics services

Equity and cultural safety in Indigenous genomic healthcare

Increasing the use of funded genomic tests with eligible patients

LABORATORY

Integrating genomic data with other health data

Developing and commercialising a genomic data management platform